Prayer that Pleases God - by Pastor Michael

Would you agree that, at times, the most challenging aspect of prayer is just getting started? What can we say that inclines our hearts to God's will so that we are actually communing with the Lord and not merely murmuring religious words? Our Lord Himself shows us precisely what kind of prayer pleases God. Let's consider His words.

Student Ministry Update from Joey Snodgrass

I'm excited to let you know that we are bringing on two interns to serve with me this semester. We will have Kashaun Barber and Mary Hibbitts serving as Student Ministry Interns to help me keep everything running at full speed in the youth ministry. Kashaun has helped us with Disciple Now weekends and led worship for us at Falls Creek last summer while also being integrally involved in leading worship at his home church. Mary has been a faithful part of her church in Stillwater and currently serves as the intern for the BCM on OSU's campus where she organizes and facilitates small groups and regularly meets with girls for discipleship. I'm grateful to have both of them help me serve the students and families of our church this Spring! They will begin serving with me this Sunday.
